

SPONSORSHIP LEVELS

The ACPA Educational Leadership Foundation will hold a golf scramble on Saturday, March 31, 2007. The event to be held in conjunction with the start of the 2007 joint meeting of ACPA and NASPA in Orlando, Florida, will be open to all conferees, corporate friends, and guests. Hawk's Landing Golf Club, one of the finest courses in the Orlando area and located at the Orlando World Center Marriott Resort, will be the tournament venue. Through this event, the ACPA Foundation hopes to raise funds in support of initiatives established by the ACPA leadership and seeks to provide an opportunity for supporters and friends of the Foundation and ACPA to enjoy a day of fun and friendly competition.

Title Sponsor ($10,000)	18	9	6	4	2	1	1
Ace Sponsor ($6,000)
Double Eagle Sponsor ($4,000)
Eagle Sponsor ($2,000)
Birdie Sponsor ($1,500)
Par I Sponsor ($1,000)
Par II Sponsor ($750)

The day begins with a continental breakfast at 7:00am, followed by an 8:00am shotgun start. The early start will provide some respite from the midday heat and enable those with afternoon or early evening obligations to still play a fun round of golf. Enter as part of a team of four players or just on your own (individuals will be assigned to a team) But don't miss the fun! Club rental will be available.

Entry fee includes a continental breakfast, green fees, cart, access to the driving range, range balls, welcome package, and prizes. Team prizes will be awarded for low gross, low handicap, and "most strokes".

Sponsorship opportunities are still available. Information about how you can become a tournament sponsor or support the event through the purchase of a corporate ($750), college/university ($250), or individual ($100) tee sign is included within this brochure.

ACPA

College Student Educators International

Founded in 1924, ACPA is comprised of nearly 8,000 members representing nearly 1,500 private and public institutions from across the U.S. and internationally, as well as companies and organizations engaged in the campus marketplace. The Association is committed to the following core values:

- Education and development of the total student
- Diversity, multicultural competence and human dignity
- Inclusiveness in and access to association-wide involvement and decision-making
- Free and open exchange of ideas in a context of mutual respect
- Advancement and dissemination of knowledge relevant to college students and their learning, and to the effectiveness of student affairs professionals and their institutions
- Continuous professional development and personal growth of student affairs professionals
- Outreach and advocacy on issues of concern to students, student affairs professionals and the higher education community, including affirmative action and other policy issues

The Educational Leadership Foundation

The ACPA Educational Leadership Foundation is an independent 501 C3 organization that seeks philanthropic support for ACPA's research, scholarship, professional development and leadership programs. Its goal is to provide opportunities for college student educators to enhance their talents, experiences, and skills enabling them to better prepare students for future leadership roles in a global society. The Foundation achieves its mission and goals through funding of programs and services that reflect ACPA's priorities as outlined in the Association's strategic plan.
